HALF A CENTURY OF FREEDOM.

Fifty years ago the Catholic relief bill passed the British parliament and the Irish people breathed free for the first time in centuries. The English nation went at Ireland like a wild beast going for a lamb, with the avowed purpose of exterminating the race. They were pushed to a fiery zeal by religious bigotry as well as national prejudice, and there is no page of human history blotted with darker crime, worse persecution or cruelty than that relating to the two islands from 1100 to 1800. At the beginning of this century William Pitt was in the prime of his glorious career, and he conceived the noble idea of doing justice to the groaning island. He failed to see the end of his good work, but in 1829 Robert Peel finished it in an able manner. Intelligent travelers are unanimous in the opinion that no country in Europe is advancing as fast as Ireland. Her schools are full of bright boys and girls who have royal opportunities compared to those of their parents, and the most rapid advances are made in the most backward districts. If the condition of land titles was the same as in France, so that small parcels could be obtained, Ireland would have a brilliant future. The "next century," and she will be far more prosperous than in the past without doubt.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Just as the GAZETTE predicted the colored immigrants in Kansas are beginning to suffer want and hardship. Late dispatches show that the most of them are indebted to charity for food and shelter. If the plantation negroes were educated and read the papers, such reports would deter them from immigrating without knowing where they were going, or what for. But they cannot read, and they naturally will not believe what the planters tell them, hence the sufferings of those who have gone before will not hinder others from following after.

A Washington dispatch says that George C. Gorham will soon leave there for California, and begin at once to organize the Republican party there. God help the Republican can win this election in California with reasonable prudence, but if they undertake to carry "Coolie" Gorham they only invite defeat.

England is spending millions to conquer a tribe of barbarians, while her mechanics and factory operatives are starving at home. Yet she has no sand lot orators, and the oppressed Irishmen are more law-abiding in their native land than their compatriots in California.

The Eureka Leader says: "Isabella McDaniell brings suit against Henry Kind for $1500 damages for an alleged assault. How could Henry be so unkind? Or, mayhap, he only laid kind hands on her."

The Sentinel has for a long time been warning the people of Eureka of what they might expect unless better precautions against fire were taken. No heed was taken, and Eureka lies in ashes, the Sentinel with its rest. We are not so sorry for the people as we are for the Sentinel.

Sam Davis, of the Chronicle, has a book in the hands of publishers, and the Appeal says: "Whereas his enemies are pleased and chuckle unto themselves. Poor Sam! Our pity takes a contrary direction. Poor public!"

The latest and most impartial reports from California indicate that the vote on the new constitution will be very close. The main battle ground is San Francisco. Whichever party carries the city will probably win the fight.

Somebody calls Blaine the main spring of the Republican party. Then the Republican party will never put its main spring in the Presidential chair.

A nice old lady from Long valley started east on the overland train. The first day out she got up very early and had her bed all nicely made up before the porter got around.

The campaign in California has reached the "Another lie called" stage.

LATEST NEWS.

The senate Friday after a short session, adjourned till Monday.
 Silver is quoted in London at 49 15-16 pence per ounce; United States four per cent. bonds, 103.
 The Sultan expresses disapproval of the Khedive's course but says he does not intend to dethrone him.

A cable dispatch reports a revolution in Panama. After fourteen hours fighting in the streets quiet was restored.

An exciting political debate occurred in the house Friday. Burrows (Republican) of Michigan made the principal speech.

The secretary of the treasury has issued a call for $100,000,000 of 10-40 bonds, which will leave about $30,000,000 of this class of bonds outstanding.

Chief Moses having agreed, the President has set aside a very large reservation in Washington territory for Moses and his people, with such Indians as may affiliate and the secretary of the interior may send.

Governors general have been appointed for six of the most populous districts of Russia with perfectly despotical powers. From 5,000 to 10,000 suspected persons new under arrest will be sent in chains to Siberia.

The secretary of the treasury announces that in consequence of the proposal of the syndicate to take $100,000,000 of four per cent. bonds and $40,000,000 of refunding certificates, the circular offering the bonds for sale will be at once rescinded.

The disasters in Waterbury, South Carolina, on account of Wednesday's tornado is so widespread that the city authorities of Charleston have forwarded $500 worth of provision and $1000 in cash for the relief of the sufferers.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 18.—Dr. St. Louis, who was to hang to-day at Waterbury, for poisoning his wife, shot himself, not fatally, and Governor Nance has respite him until May 16.

Special Postal Agent John B. Furay arrested to-day Peter B. Thompson, a clerk in the post-office at Seward, Nebraska, for robbing the mails. The arrest was made upon decoy letters. Over $12,000 was found upon his person. He pleads guilty.

The president of the convention of colored men of Louisiana, now being held in New Orleans, in his address, among other things said: "If white capitalists will put down ruffianism, I will to the best of my ability endeavor to prevent the exodus. We were born here and the climate is congenial, but if we cannot live here in peace we had better leave." And again: "We know the consequences and we know that our labor here cannot be replaced; but the white people have presumed upon our good nature, and unless we have better guarantees than have yet been accorded, within a year there will not be a man, woman or child of our race left in Louisiana."

Grant's Reception.
 A Tribune Philadelphia special says: The Council to-day continued the committee appointed by last year's body to prepare for the reception of General Grant at San Francisco. Col. Charles T. Jones, who made the motion, said the council had decided when General Grant left there that they would receive him on his return, and it would be done. The general had said he expected to make Philadelphia his home in the future, and the council thought it no more than proper that the council should send a delegation to California to escort him home. He (the speaker) was going to California whether anybody else went or not. "I have no objection," said Mr. Beckert, to the gentleman from the Tribune, but I cannot see the point of sending a committee all the way to California to receive a private individual." Mr. Copeland in answer said he clearly understood the dislike the Democrats had to General Grant. They hated him before he took Vicksburg, and had been hating him ever since for taking it and whipping their southern friends. Beckert replied: "As a Democrat, I love General Grant."

A Tribune Albany special says: In the assembly expressing pleasure at the honors paid ex-President Grant, and recommending that on account of the great esteem of his past services a committee of three senators and five representatives tender him the hospitality of the state upon his return.

The Marriage of the Midgits.
 The New York Sun says a remarkable marriage will take place in that city next Sunday, that of the midgits, the two most diminutive people in the world.

Lucie Zarate, the prospective bride, is fifteen years old, and weighs a trifle less than five pounds. Her face is bright, but not prepossessing. The bracelets she wears cannot be buckled around the third finger of a man of ordinary size. Her shoes (made to order) are 2 1/4 inches long, and her gloves measure about one inch from the tip of the longest finger to the button at the wrist. Her cap was made originally for a doll in a Broadway show window, and is a good fit.

In the matter of jewelry she is a profuse. On each hand she wears a diamond ring, her brooch is a diamond, and she has a fondness for dangling ornaments on her ears, such, for instance, as a small diamond supplemented by a California gold quarter of a dollar.

Gen. Mite, whose real name is Francis J. Flynn, weighs 9 pounds and is 14 years old. His face is bright and intelligent, and his conversation does not belie it.

Alleged State Mining men from Spring City say that Captain Rawlings has struck very rich ore, and apparently plenty of it, in the Bullion mine, which was leased from the company until next July.

Too Particular.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A Times Washington correspondent, illustrating what he calls "Hayes' sham sentimentality towards the poor negro," mentions that ex-congressman Rainey has been an applicant for the office of third auditor of the treasury. Yesterday a white Republican ex-member of congress (Keightley, of Michigan) was nominated for the position. To-day Hayes tendered Rainey the position of assistant appointment clerk in the treasury department. He rejected the offer indignantly.

The following is a verbatim copy of a mining claim notice, posted not a thousand miles from Eureka, says the Sentinel: "Py got dis was mine glame long time ago, unt py chorge it was pettor you don't come around some more mit your tam modises on dis glame. I virk dis glame in year 1873 unt done some little virk all dem years till dis year 1879, unt py got you better don't virk some more er i will ketch you unt Sue you in mid middle of du law unt dakes you mit der Best ofice mit Shuge Huppart mid eureka swt. dis glame is mine Pismark py got. (Signed) JAKE SWARTZ."

—The river raised a few inches last night.

—More railroad iron went through to-day.

—Dr. Bergman to-day received a new buggy from San Francisco.

—The framework of the mansard roof is being put up on the Depot hotel.

—There is a message in the W. U. Telegraph office for Frank Singer, a butcher.

—The trees along the river bank are putting on the green habiliments of spring.

—A sign of the times: A Virginia street restaurant regales its patrons on anti-Chinese pudding.

—L. S. Burchard is to receive the appointment of school census marshal for this school district.

—Mrs. Mary Christie and Mrs. Beljum, two ladies who were brought down from Virginia last night, and taken to Stockton.

—Coleman & Pechner have got two tasty barber-poles up in front of their shaving establishment. Advertisers, they are.

—The GAZETTE made an error in giving the list of delegates to the grand lodge I. O. O. F. P. B. Comstock was elected instead of J. S. Shoemaker.

—Notice of assessment delinquency on the stock of the Crown Prince gold and silver mining company will be seen in another column. It means call and settle.

—Read the special notice of Jacobs & Rosenbloom, tailors, in another column of this paper. Mr. Rosenbloom is an experienced cutter and fitter, and their rates will always be in accord with the full times.

—A warm-headed individual stepped up to a bar at Hunt's Hill the other day for a little of the Kentucky. He poured his glass full and laid down a short bit. The bar-keep soliloquized: "Three inches of whiskey for ten cents, and water a bit an inch?"

New Tailor Store.

S. Jacobs has formed a co-partnership with J. Rosenbloom, an experienced cutter and fitter, from California, and they will to-night move to the store just vacated by Coleman & Pechner, and will be ready for business Monday morning. They have one of the largest stocks of imported piece goods ever brought to Reno, and will make them up in the latest styles and at the usually low rates that have always prevailed at Mr. Jacobs' establishment. apr19

Squally.

The clouds have been looking aqueous and lowering all day. Little squalls of rain have come up at intervals, but they never reached the dignity of a shower. The weather has been sufficient, however, to bring out umbrellas and overcoats. From the appearance of the clouds in that direction, it must have snowed in the Sierras.

A Fine Piece of Work.

The prescription cabinet in Osburn & Shoemaker's is one of the neatest and most beautiful pieces of painting one can see anywhere. It is a perfect gem. T. F. Laycock was the artist, and the job reflects great credit on his skill.

Concluded.

The teachers' examination was concluded to-day, and first grade certificates awarded to the following applicants: Miss Mollie E. Grippen, N. A. Trewe. Second grade, Miss Addie Park, Miss Josie Wintermantel, Miss Rose M. Wilcox and Carrie C. Ballard.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.

Rev. C. McKelvey, Presiding Elder of Reno District, and Pastor of the M. E. Church.

To the Scotch Irish stock which has given America so many good men and true, our Methodist brethren are indebted for their present pastor. Mr. McKelvey was born in Leeds county, Ontario, Canada, Nov. 13, 1833, which probably explains the hitherto unknown cause of the brilliant meteoric shower which fell four days before. From infancy his mind was trained in the strictest orthodox beliefs by his parents, who were sturdy members of the church of England. At the age of 20 he became a convert to the Methodist faith, and two years later entered the ministry with the charge of a large country circuit southeast of Montreal on the border of Vermont and Maine. After two years of this life he was given the William street church in Yorkville, upper Canada. During these three years the young minister felt constantly the lack of a classical education. Having been educated for business pursuits he had the advantage of but limited literary training in early life. He is, in fact,

A SELF MADE MAN.

At the close of his year at Yorkville, which was very successful, Mr. McKelvey entered the theological institute of the Methodist church, where a number of his friends were pursuing their studies, with the intention of taking a regular course of classics, theology and medicine; but close application together with the demands to fill pulpits temporarily, brought on degeneration of the brain, which for nearly three years rendered him unable to read for half an hour at a time, much less to write, in field and wood, on river and lake, restored the overtaxed energies, and at the expiration of five years he re-entered the ministry, filling with credit and acceptability the pulpits of his church in the cities of Montreal, Galt and Hamilton. An ardent lover of republican institutions, he left Canada in the summer of 1870 and turned his face toward the Golden Gate. Upon reaching Omaha he was prevailed on to accept the pastorate of the church then vacant at Fremont, Nebraska, and for five years was a member of that conference. The last year of his stay in Nebraska he was chosen by a large majority to be chaplain of the state senate. In the fall of 1875 he was transferred by Bishop Peck to this state, stationed at Virginia City, and took charge of the church on the first Sabbath in September. On the 26th of October, church, parsonage and all the property belonging thereto was destroyed by fire. Owing to the severity of the winter, building could not be commenced before spring. Meanwhile funds were collected in California and the east, and on the first of April, 1876, the work of rebuilding began, and on the first Sabbath in August the church was opened for divine service—the first church opened after the fire. During this time a second fire occurred June 19, 1876, and he was stripped of everything—library, clothing, household goods, and himself severely burned. Three years, the full term of the Methodist pastorate, were spent in Virginia City, during which time the membership of the church was doubled and the Sabbath school and congregation increased from about fifty to three hundred. The church enjoyed a larger measure of success financially, socially and spiritually than ever before. Probably few men of the Methodist order on the Pacific coast could have accomplished so much in the same length of time, and suffered so many losses as cheerfully, and there are few, if any, who can now draw so large a congregation in Virginia City as he. Upon the expiration of his term of service in Virginia City Mr. McKelvey was ordered to Reno where his labors have been very acceptably received, as they well deserve to. His time has been entirely devoted to his church, which has improved wonderfully not only spiritually but in temporal matters as well. The building has been overhauled and greatly changed for the better. He is very popular with his congregation and the citizens generally. He strikes strangers very favorably indeed. His form is manly. His flowing auburn beard and genial smile are prepossessing and inspire confidence. Mr. McKelvey is a benedict of twelve years' standing, and is the author and half proprietor of two fine manly little fellows who take up the whole street when they turn out for a game of ball or marbles. A man of indomitable and untiring energy and perseverance, and wholly devoted to the work of the church of his choice. His early business education and talent have ever found scope and employment in directing and carrying on church enterprises. Possessing a strong love for scientific investigation, he has made himself acquainted with the thoughts and theories of most of the leading scientists of the day, both for and against the teachings of Christianity. He has great faith in humanity and the ultimate development of its possibilities toward the pure and good, and the "survival of the fittest." His preaching is characterized by strong common sense, and is plain, practical, earnest and evangelical. No attempt at pulpit display and never sensational, he abhors shams, aiming to make men better and purer, rather than to win popular favor. Socially, he overflows with good humor and mirthfulness, and often is as playful as his own little boys. When he consented to become pastor of the church in Reno he was offered a fine position in the California conference, but the persuasions of Bishop Simpson prevailed, and the snow-capped Sierras still rise between him and the land of flowers, towards which he has looked with longing eyes for many years.

EUREKA'S HOLOCAUST!!

One Million Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed!

THREE HUNDRED FAMILIES DESTITUTE!

Two Thousand People Without Shelter!

RELIEF NEEDED AT ONCE!

[Special Dispatch to the GAZETTE.]

EUREKA, Nev., April 19.—About one o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the opera house, and as a terrible gale was blowing at the time it was impossible to get control of the flames until one-third of the town was in ashes. The loss is estimated at a million dollars. Three hundred families are rendered destitute, and there are at least two thousand people without shelter. The Eureka Sentinel office was burned, but a few cases of type were saved. There is great destitution, and a meeting of citizens was called for this afternoon to take measures for the relief of the sufferers. As near as can be ascertained no lives were lost.

SECOND DISPATCH.

EUREKA, NEV., April 19.—All that part of the town east of Main street and north of the Jackson house was totally destroyed, except Paxton & Co's bank, which was uninjured. The Masonic hall, the Sentinel office, the post office, opera house, Wells' foundry and all the principal part of the town in ashes.

Relics of the Donner Party.

[Truckee Republican.]

Joe. Marzen, Sr., Dr. R. J. Goss and Samuel Lowry visited the Donner meadows in company with one of the proprietors of the Republican, on Thursday last. Mr. Lowry pointed out the site of the three cabins of the Donner party. Upon removing the floor of the Green cabin, several relics were found. Pins with round welded heads, bullets, shot, flints for gunlocks, the sole of a baby's shoe, a large, old-fashioned head, some wrought nails and numerous pieces of ancient china-ware were among these relics. Mr. Marzen proposes to plant Lombardy poplars around each of the spots where the cabins stood. All three of the cabins were situated on land belonging to Mr. Marzen.

Not Likely to Recover.

Thomas Hitchcock, who had his thigh crushed at Verdi Thursday, did not have his leg amputated yesterday, as was reported. To-day Dr. Hogan, Bergman, and Lewis held a consultation, and concluded to wait while before performing the operation, though the limb will ultimately have to come off. He has rallied some, but there are little hopes of his recovery.

District Court Proceedings.

William Hoffman vs. Antonio Rager, et al.—cause continued until April 25th.

P. J. Kelly vs. Graham, Trainor and Cal. F. and M. S. company—trial set April 30th.

United Brothers mining company vs. L. D. Wickes—argument for new trial. Adjourned until Monday.

New Incorporation.

The Reno Ditch, Land and Irrigation Company was incorporated to-day with A. M. Wickes, R. P. Ferguson, J. D. Park, D. J. Crowley, and B. F. Bacon as directors. It has a capital stock of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares. Its objects are to buy and sell land, and run irrigation ditches in Washoe county.

More Temperance.

Dr. D. B. McKenzie has written that he will come to Reno next Wednesday, and commence a series of lectures on temperance. Arrangements have been made to get the pavilion for him to lecture in. If seats can be procured he will hold forth there during his stay here.

To the Point.

A rusty looking fellow came up to Mr. Longstreet this morning, with a pipe in his mouth, and when about seven feet away said, "Any job?" Mr. L. gave him a glance, and answered, "No job," and he walked off on his ear, as it were.

Professor Scott's Solace.

The sociably inclined will have another opportunity of dancing to the entrancing strains of Professor Scott's music this evening. Another one of his enjoyable soirees will be given this evening at Kimball's hall.

Handsome Show Windows.

M. Well, of the Cleveland Suit and Clean company, and M. Hoffman have got a pair of elegant show windows in their establishments. They set off the stores to great advantage.

A PROMISING BUSINESS.

A Valuable Animal which Multiplies and Waxes Fat on a Sage Brush Diet.

The Angora goats interest promises to be a very important one in Nevada. It is doubtful if any state in the Union is so well adapted to their constitution as this, for the reason that no other state has so little moisture in the atmosphere and in the soil. That kind of cattle go splashing around in the eastern states and get foot rot, scab and other diseases, which take the profits. Here the beasts roam about among the hills, picking up a good living on high, rocky land that would be utterly useless for any other purpose. They are seldom sick or ailing and live to a good age. The meat is as good as mutton, the pelts growing in value, and the quality of the wool improving with each generation. In the vicinity of the goat ranches between here and Verdi, the sage brush on the sides of the hills is cleared of every leaf and shoot. The stems alone remain and look like dead brush. They even seem to prefer this bitter diet to bunch grass. The herds are started with common mothers and a few Angora rams. The half-bred are then bred with full-blooded stock, and in a very few years the fleece is very near as fine as the noble patriarchs from which they sprang. There are several large herds already and the increase counts up very fast. Mr. Roberts has 1500 head and but for too much care would have a great many kids. He kept the herd housed up too much during the winter, and they dropped their young very early, losing a great many mothers and kids both. Merrill, at Verdi, has 1000 head. Benitz, at the bridge, has 600 on the shores, besides 150 kids. The herd will be increased still further by 150 or 200 more kids. Woods has 60 or 70 head. There is no milking done nor cheese made that the writer has heard of.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. John S. Gilson, Local Agent of Insurance Company, Reno—DEAR SIR, May I be permitted to express my thanks for the very prompt and satisfactory manner in which your insurance company has settled? Almost before the flames had gone down and long before the embers had ceased to glow your adjusters were on the spot. My claim adjusted most satisfactorily, and the full amount of insurance paid on presentation of the policies at the S. F. office. Such prompt, fair and just settlement is indeed most commendable and greatly appreciated. When our mill is rebuilt, I shall hope to have policies in your company and while I hope that I may never be called upon to adjust new losses, the knowledge that if I should be, they will be so promptly and satisfactorily settled will always be a great relief to me and far more than repay the cost of insurance premium I may be called upon to pay. I am yours very truly, A. J. COHRILL, Proprietor "Nevada State Mills."

An Unruly Vagabond.

One of the vags—William Brown, the fellow who made such a bold dash for liberty the day he was convicted—who has been put on bread and water diet by Sheriff Walker for refusing to work, made an attempt to escape yesterday evening. When Jailor Haslund opened the jail he rushed past him, but ran his face into the muzzle of a pistol in the hands of Walker at the sheriff's office door, and was induced to return to his quarters. He is a surly, vicious looking scamp, and is evidently an old offender. Last night he kept up a furious knocking with his shackles on the jail floor. This morning the sheriff looked him in a dark cell where he can meditate at his leisure on the blessings of solitude and a Beecher diet.

TRUCKEE ITEMS.

[From the Republican of To-day.] Strawberries are in the market.

The trout are at the dam of the Truckee lumber company above town.

James McDonald is driving sixteen hundred cords of wood down Prosser creek.

Sadie Corey has obtained a divorce from W. A. Corey, on the ground of failure to provide.

The Odd Fellows will celebrate their 60th anniversary by a grand ball. Prof. Scott, of Reno will furnish the music.

Mr. F. E. Sickles, who has had charge of Mr. Hay's Tahoe property, will go to Virginia in a few days to assume the secretaryship of one of the Comstock mines.

Contract Let.

Chas. Glichrist, of Huffaker's station, was in town to-day. He informed a GAZETTE reporter that about 15,000 cords of wood would be put in at that station the coming season. The contracts are to-day let to E. Barney, William Stewart, and O. Chapute to put in the above amount. This is considerably less than has been put in for several years past, but with the eight thousand cords now in the yard at that place, the railroad managers think it will last them until next spring.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

There will be divine service at the M. E. church to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Rev. C. McKelvey officiating. In the evening there will be an address on the subject of temperance. Seats free. All are invited. Sabbath school at 1:30 P. M.

Cut His Foot.

Watty, the well known gannymede at Merrill's, had his foot cut by a knife falling from a shelf. Fortunately it only struck the side of the foot, or a very serious wound would have been inflicted.

PERSONAL.

Captain Bragg has gone to Bodie. Allan C. Bagg came down from Carson last night.

Ex-Judge Harris, of Carson, is in the riverside town.

M. C. Lake returned from San Francisco this morning.

W. B. Hickok, of Virginia, is registered at the Lake House.

A. P. Clarke, of Truckee, came in on the lightning this morning.

Jim. Burge, ne of barbaque notoriety, has come to Reno, and will hereafter make this his home.

Gen. R. M. Clarke was down from Carson to-day, and had a consultation with his client, Ah Choway.

Rev. A. F. Hitchcock, of Susan, Cal., arrived here this morning. He is the father of Thomas Hitchcock, whose thigh was crushed at Verdi Thursday night. He came up to see his son.

D. J. Crowley, of Truckee, R. P. Ferguson, of Camp 16, A. M. Wickes, of Bronco, and J. D. Park, of Verdi, are in town to-day. A meeting of the stockholders of the Crystal Ice company is being held here to-day, which accounts for their presence in Reno.

Business Change.

Mr. Bradley, a man of considerable experience in the lumber business, has purchased the lumber business of R. F. M. Greeley, near the old Nevada flouring mill, and will hereafter keep a full assortment of all kinds of building and dressed lumber, shingles, lath, etc.

To the Good People of Reno.

Having entered the field with the balance to contend for a share of the public patronage, it would perhaps be well at the start to state our claims to the above. I am not a sufferer by the fire, so claim no sympathy on that score. I believe it's the duty of the good people to give preference to old residents, provided all things are equal, but I Brown aside fifty cents for what Smith is willing to sell for twenty cents, on the grounds that he is lower by the fire, and wants to get even, the trade will naturally go to the latter. Hence I say we have no claim on the people except on those who may wish to economize. If you wish to buy your wife a fine silk dress by all means go to Emrich. If you want a suit of fine clothes go to friend Nathan's or Abrams', but if you want a "goose yoke," rat trap or jack knife go to Yankee Dodge's, where a dollar will buy a basketful. Recollect goods just as square as though sold over a marble counter. A child that can lip out the names of the articles wanted, can buy just as cheap as an expert.

P. S.—Money will be refunded on all goods that do not prove as represented.

YANKEE DODGE & CO.

Grand Opening.

Mrs. Julia Prescott has returned from San Francisco with a fine stock of Millinery and Fancy Goods which will be displayed for the first time on Saturday, April 19, in the old stand, next door to the Post office. All of her former friends and customers and the public generally are invited to call and examine her goods. For style and cheapness they cannot be surpassed. She has all the latest novelties in French and American millinery, and can please the most fastidious taste. apr17

Opened at Last.

I. Fredrick has at last got fixed up in Osburn & Shoemaker's drug store. He has one of the finest stocks of jewelry and silverware ever brought to this state. Mr. Fredrick is a pioneer in this business in Reno, and as such is fully aware of the wants of the people of this vicinity. Call and see him, and you can be sure you will be well treated. apr17

A Good Man Coming.

I would most respectfully inform the ladies of Reno that I shall open here within the next two weeks with an elegant stock of Dry Goods, etc. apr18

Paints and Oils.

F. B. each has received a big stock of Paints, Oils, Glass, Locks, Nails and all kinds of building material, which he will sell over than ever before in Reno. Give him a call. apr18

For Sale.

At the Reno Nursery, Reno, Nev., 100,000 FRUIT AND SHRUB TREES. I will sell hereafter by the hundred for cash, at the Nursery for one-half the usual price.

Will Open.
